In addition to imparting wisdom with incoming officers, outgoing officers discussed follow-up items from the OWLA Annual Meeting held on February 26th. A deadline of early fall was set for the Bylaws Revision Committee to prepare proposals for OWLA membership vote in October. Committee membership will include revision proposal authors and will be chaired by Tresa Hill and Susan Keim. A summary of minutes from the annual meeting will be prepared and posted on <https://oldwestlawrence.net/documents-2/> with full minutes to be posted at a later date. An audit of the treasurer's books was performed at the conclusion of the meeting.

OWLA officers discussed membership communication strategies. An official Old West Lawrence Association Facebook page will be created to facilitate improved information-sharing with OWLA members. The new Facebook page will be in addition to existing communication methods including the email distribution list, website and newsletter.

The meeting concluded with discussion of active OWLA projects and volunteer opportunities.
